Sealmatic Shines At NEFTEGAZ 2025, Moscow, Russia

The National Oil & Gas Forum (NEFTEGAZ) serves as a pivotal exhibition especially in the oil and gas sector, bringing together manufacturers, stakeholders and industry experts to explore new products, trends and networking opportunities. NEFTEGAZ is organized by key institutions such as the Russian Ministry of Energy and the Ministry of Industry and Trade of the Russian Federation.

Sealmatic recently took the center stage at the NEFTEGAZ 2025 exhibition held in Moscow, Russia. Hence, marking its second consecutive year at one of the most significant exhibition in the oil and gas industry. The company showcased a comprehensive range of high-performance mechanical seals for the demanding applications of the oil and gas sector. Sealmatic booth became a focal point for leading OEMs, End Users, EPCs and host of other important delegates from across the industry. The response was overwhelmingly positive, with visitors appreciating the technical sophistication, reliability and engineering excellence.

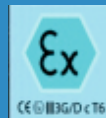

*"Our continued presence at NEFTEGAZ highlights our long-term commitment to this strategically important region. Russia, being the largest player in the CIS, presents tremendous opportunities in exploration, production and refining, we are very well positioned to contribute with world class sealing solutions within this region," says – Mr. Zakir Chaudhary – Vice President (Engineering).

The event served as a powerful platform for knowledge exchange, dedication to innovation and global expansion in the oil and gas industry.
