Sealmatic Impresses At India Energy Week 2026

Sealmatic India Ltd., listed on the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE: BOM: 543782), proudly marked its presence at India Energy Week (IEW) 2026, held at the ONGC – Advanced Training Institute (ATI) in Goa, India, one of the world's most influential platforms for the global energy industry.

At India Energy Week (IEW) 2026, Sealmatic showcased its cutting-edge mechanical sealing solutions, reflecting its unwavering commitment to innovation, sustainability, and engineering excellence.

The exhibition provided an excellent opportunity for Sealmatic to connect with existing clients, engage with potential partners, and strengthen its expanding global footprint. Visitors from across the Oil & Gas, Petrochemical and Process industries experienced our products firsthand, guided by the expertise of the Sealmatic Dream Team.

India Energy Week (IEW) 2026 served as a powerful platform to reaffirm Sealmatic position as a global leader in sealing technology, supporting the region's growing focus on advanced and sustainable energy solutions.

"Our participation at India Energy Week (IEW) 2026 reflects Sealmatic continued commitment to innovation and our vision to serve the evolving needs of the global process industry," says; Mr. Sanjeev Vange - Senior Vice President (Global Sales & Marketing).
