Sealmatic Opens Its Sales Office In The Heart Of India - Delhi

The name Delhi may originate from the Urdu/Hindustani word Dahleez (English: threshold, or frontier) or from the name of a Mauryan king, Raja Dhillu. Delhi is a city steeped in history, culture and power, has long been the political and administrative heartbeat of India. As the capital of numerous empires over centuries, it continues to play a pivotal role in shaping the nation's future. Today, it stands as the National Capital Territory (NCT) of India, encompassing not just the urban spread of Delhi itself but also key neighboring regions in Haryana and Uttar Pradesh. It is in this vibrant and strategically important city that Sealmatic has taken a significant step forward in its growth journey.

Sealmatic is pleased to announce the opening of its Sales office in Delhi, marking a new chapter and to strengthen pan India presence. This sales office, located in the very heart of the city, positions Sealmatic to better serve its customers and partners across North India. Delhi's central location and world class connectivity makes it an ideal hub to support industries in nearby states and beyond. With this expansion, Sealmatic aims to bring its high-quality mechanical sealing solutions closer to the doorstep of its customers in key sectors such as oil & gas, refinery, power, chemical, pharmaceutical, water treatment and other process industries. The Delhi office will serve as a vital touchpoint for providing technical consultations, commercial support and quick response service to key OEMs and End Users alike.

“Heading the Delhi sales office will be Mr. Swarup Das, a seasoned professional with extensive critical industry experience and a deep understanding of mechanical seals and systems. With his expertise, Mr. Das will play a key role in driving business growth in the region, building strategic partnerships and ensuring Sealmatic standards of service excellence” says; Sumit Chanda – Asst Vice President (North & East).

Further to the above, Mr. Swarup Das, adds “Delhi is a dynamic market full of potential, and I am excited to lead Sealmatic efforts here. Our presence in this region will bring us closer to our esteemed OEMs, End User, Consultants etc, which will enable us to respond faster to their needs.”
