Sealmatic Participates In Defence & Technology Expo 2023

The Defence & Technology Expo – Transforming India Edition 2.0, is organised with the support of Department of Defence Production (Ministry of Defence) and Tamil Nadu Industrial Development Corporation (TIDCO).

The Defence & Technology Expo proved to be the perfect platform for Sealmatic. Sealmatic's presence at the Defence & Technology Expo was nothing short of remarkable. There were companies from Defence PSUs, Armed Forces, ISRO, DRDO, Navy along with few private sector units.

As Sealmatic looks ahead, it remains dedicated to innovation and excellence. The success at the Defence & Technology Expo reaffirms Sealmatic's position as a leader in the mechanical seal industry. With a commitment to serving the defence sector's needs, Sealmatic is poised for a future filled with growth and success. Thus, the commitment to excellence and innovation continues to drive its accomplishment in serving the needs of this critical sector.
