Sealmatic: The Shining Star At ChemTech 2024 Exhibition

Sealmatic took center stage at the prestigious ChemTech 2024 Exhibition held in Mumbai (March 04th to March 07th 2024). It was an excellent opportunity for Sealmatic to display its products filled with innovation and excellence. It is an important exhibition for Sealmatic and the process industry at large, it garnered tremendous response from various sectors, including Refinery, Oil & Gas, Petrochemical and other process industries. The Sealmatic stall emerged as a hub of activity, attracting attention and engagement from numerous Pump and AMKR (Agitator, Mixers, Kneaders and Reactors) OEMs.

A notable highlight of Sealmatic's participation was its prime location at the center stage in Hall 1, boasting an expansive size of 90 square meters. This distinctive presence sets Sealmatic apart, demonstrating its commitment to making a lasting impression in every exhibition it participates in. Sealmatic left no stone unturned in ensuring the success of this grand exhibition, leveraging its expertise and resources to create a memorable experience for attendees.

Asides from the traditional technical discussions that visitors at the Sealmatic stall were engaged with, we also had many fun moments with themes such as Coffee with Sealmatic, and a caricature artist mesmerizing visitors with making on the spot portrait was a super hit.

The visitors and delegates alike expressed keen interest and confidence in Sealmatic's offerings as a trusted partner in the industry, from sealing solutions to customer-centric service, Sealmatic showcased its prowess at every turn.

The ChemTech 2024 Exhibition will be remembered as a milestone event for Sealmatic, where it not only showcased its capabilities but also reaffirmed its position as a leader in the field of sealing solutions. With a legacy built on innovation, integrity and customer satisfaction, Sealmatic looks forward to many more years of success and growth in the dynamic landscape of the process industry.

At the heart of the Chemtech Foundation lies a rich legacy of fostering business interactions and alliances within India's process industry. Since its inception in 1974, the Chemtech Exhibition has served as a cornerstone for major equipment manufacturers specializing in pumps, compressors, agitators, mixers, reactors and other essential process equipment. As the exhibition celebrated its 50th year, Sealmatic stood out as the shining star, captivating the audience with its innovative solutions and unwavering commitment to quality.
